

Gardens in Mayfair and Belgravia

Introduction

The gardens of Mayfair and Belgravia were laid out at the time of the original masterplanning of the two estates in the early 18th and 19th centuries respectively. Today they comprise:

	MAYFAIR	BELGRAVIA
PRIVATE GARDENS	Green Street Culross Street Green Street Brown Hart/Duke Street	Eaton Square Belgrave Square* Chester Square Wilton Crescent Halkin Street Buckingham Palace Road Cundy Street Victoria Square
PUBLIC GARDENS	Grosvenor Square* Mount Street Berkeley Square	Grosvenor Gardens Ebury Square

* Access is available to any resident on the Grosvenor Belgravia Estate

** Public access is available during normal working hours but is restricted to residents at evenings and weekends

*** Public access to the garden and the café is generally available between 8.00am and 8.00pm.

**** With the exception of Grosvenor Square which is maintained by The Royal Parks, all other public gardens are maintained by Westminster City Council

Additional Notes

- Where there are facilities for dogs, parties or for tennis, these are subject to additional rules and charges and there may be a waiting list
- Where there is a committee chair, the gardens are run jointly by Grosvenor and the residents through a garden committee. Each year there is an Annual General Meeting of garden users and the committee will then meet between 2 and 6 times a year.
- Many of the gardens are featured on our the website: www.grosvenor-gardens.co.uk
- The Landscape Management Department is based at 15a Eccleston Place, London SW1W 9NF, 020 7730 7788. Andrew Maskell is the Manager, Simon Lewis is the GLM Service Manager and there are two Garden Administrators.

This is an indication of our policies as at July 2013. We reserve the right to update and amend these policies at any time and to waive requirements or impose additional requirements in particular circumstances.
